

MONDAY NOVEMBER 28. 1743.

Since our last arriv'd the Mails due from France and Holland.

Petersburgh, November 12.

HE Preparations for her Imperial Majesty's Journey to Moscow, are still continued; but we gather, from various Circumstances, that it will not take Place till the new Year. As soon as his Excellency M. de la Chetardie arrives, who is expected in a Fortnight, her Majesty will call an Assembly of the States, or Nobility of Russia, in order to lay the Subject of his Negotiation before them; because it has relation, it seems, to some fundamental Points of the Russian Constitution. The great Marshal of the Court, Count de Bestucheff, has desired of the Czarina to be employ'd in an Embassy to the Court of Berlin; which Proposal was very graciously accepted, her Imperial Majesty intending to have sent thither a Person of the first Distinction. When the Swedish Officers, who are Prisoners here, had their Audience of Leave, her Majesty was pleas'd to dismiss them in the most gracious Manner possible; and to make each of them a Present, with her own Hand, of a Silver Hilted Sword.

Stockholm, November 15. The Marquis de la Chetardie had an Audience this Day of his Majesty, with the accustomed Ceremonies; after which he went to pay his Compliments to the Prince Royal, who received him without any Ceremony at all. The Marquis demanded that he should conduct him back to his Coach, and give him the Right Hand, as Prince Charles Gustavus had done to a French Minister, before he was King. But the Marquis was told, that he had mis- stated, or was misinformed as to the Fact; Prince Charles being, at that Time, simply Duke of Deuxponts, and not declared Successor to the Crown of Sweden; upon which, his French Excellency departed from his Demand. After this Visit was over, the Marquis returned, with the French Ambassador, to Court, and had the Honour of dining there at the King's Table. The Count de Bark, Son to the Senator of the same Name, who was propos'd to the Senate for the Embassy to the Court of Russia, carried it from the Baron de Schaffer, who was propos'd at the same Time, by the casting Vote of the Prince Royal, and will set out speedily for Petersburgh. As soon as General Keith returns from distributing the Russian Troops into Winter Quarters, he will present his Letter of Credence to this Court, as Minister Plenipotentiary from the Czarina.

Warsaw, November 19. Preparations are making at the Castle for the Reception of his Majesty, who is soon expected from Dresden, in order to hold a Diet here, for maintaining the Rights of the Republick to the Duchy of Courland, and for other important Purposes. A new Quarrel is broke out, or rather revived, between Count Tarlo and the Family of Poniatowski. About 7 or 8 Months ago, the Publick may remember Count Tarlo fought a Duel with the Son of Count Poniatowski; and this Affair having been represented in a Manner not very agreeable to the former, in a Treatise, intitled, The Police and Political Spy, or, a Letter from a Traveller upon all Sorts of Subjects; he suspected Count Poniatowski, Palatine of Macovia, to be either the Author of that Work, or, at least, the Person who furnished the Author with his Materials; upon which he wrote him a Letter, on the 2d of this Month, demanding Satisfaction either by the Sword, the Lance, the Pike, the Half-Pike, the Pistol, the Fuzil, the Musquet, the Cannon, or a Barrel of Gunpowder. The Count de Poniatowski wrote him the next Day for Answer, That as he had not the least Knowledge of the Author, or the Book, but from Hearsay, he would not interest himself about the one or the other, but left them both to his Resentment; having no sort of Inclination to meddle with any of the Weapons he mentioned, from The Sword to the Barrel of Gunpowder, upon so idle an Occasion. Count Tarlo wrote him the same Day a 2d Letter, in which he told him, That since he had disclaim'd the Book, he found it requisite to print their Correspondence; and accordingly he has published the three Letters, and spread them all over the Kingdom; which has rais'd such a Flame between the two Houses, as will not be suddenly extinguish'd. This, with the Difference between the same Count Tarlo and the House of Czartorinski, which makes more Noise than ever, is one of the important Affairs which render his Majesty's Presence so necessary here at this Juncture.

Madrid, November 11. We talk of nothing here, but the approaching Return of the Duke de Montemar, who is already arriv'd at Serigossa. Our Politicians are clearly of Opinion, that he owes that Favour more to the bad Turn of Affairs in Savoy, than to the ill State of his own Health in Murcia. The Duke has already publish'd a Sort of Manifesto, in which he vindicates himself from the Imputations thrown upon him by the Duke of Modena; which is considered as a Preparative to his being once more trust'd with the Command of an Army. This is the more likely to happen, since the Marquis de la Minas is said to have lost, by his ill Conduct, the Confidence both of the Officers and Soldiers. We begin to talk here of a General Peace, or, at least, between this Crown and that of Great Britain, which is much long'd for here. An Express is arriv'd from Naples, with Advice, as is reported at Court, that Don Carlos is determined to break thro' the Neutrality, and join all his Forces to those of the Count de Gages.

Vienna, November 20. Yesterday being the Feast of St. Elizabeth, and the Name-day of the Empress Dowager, Prince Charles of Lorraine went to her Court in Ceremony, and, after the Compliments of the Day, address'd her Majesty in these Words. 'The close Union between the Houses of Austria and Lorraine, so nearly allied to each other in Blood, encouraged me to take the Liberty of demanding in Marriage, from your Imperial Majesty, the Archduchess your second Daughter, in hopes that your Consent will crown our mutual Desires by so happy a Union.' To which her Imperial Majesty answer'd, 'I consent to it with the greater Satisfaction, because I hope that this Alliance will contribute more to the Support of both Houses.' The Espousals were celebrated the same Day, in the Presence of the Court and of the Nobility. The Duke of Aremberg arriv'd on the 17th, and on the 18th had an Audience of the Queen, who received him with extraordinary Marks of Esteem and Consideration. The Artillery and Ammunition brought here from Ingolstadt, consist in 175 Pieces of Cannon, and 31 Mortars, all of Brass, 24,000 Fuzils, 6000 Pair of Pistols, 100,000 Bullets, and 20,000 Quintals of Powder. As our Magazines cannot hold above half this Quantity, it has been resolv'd to send the rest to Brinn and Olmutz in Moravia; and Directions have been given for fortifying those Places, in such a manner, as to make them two of the strongest Fortresses in Europe.

Frankfort, November 28. His Imperial Majesty has declared to several of the Courts of Germany, that they need not be at all alarmed at any Motions of the French on the Side of the Rhine, since they were intended only to restore an old Fort which was demolished seven Years ago; and to cover the Head of a Bridge, the better to secure Alsace, and the other Frontiers of France, from the Irruptions of the Austrians. It is generally thought here, that this is a well-timed Excuse, calculated to save the Honour of the French, who found it impossible to execute their first Design, and therefore repass'd the Rhine the very Day after they had pass'd it. The Affair, however, chagrined the Imperial Court not a little, because the Dyet seem'd inclin'd to have declared against France, in case her Troops had enter'd Germany a second Time.

Extract from the Paris Alaman.

Paris, December 4. 'All the Officers of the Marine have Orders to repair to their Posts, in a Fortnight's Time at farthest. M. Noailles confers daily with the Ministers; and, it is generally believed, will have a Seat in the Council, and that M. Belleisle will command the Army next Campaign.'

'The King of Prussia labours seriously to bring about a Peace, which, however, is believed, will not be concluded, till such Time as the Queen of Hungary can be forced into it.'

'A Report prevails here, that Admiral Matthews has actually landed 2000 Men in the Neighbourhood of Monaco, with a View to besiege that Place, while he blocks it up by Sea. We are assur'd, that this Act of Hostility committed by the English, has determin'd our Ministry to order the Squadrons at Toulon to sail sooner than they would have done, as well for the Relief of the Castle, as to escort the Troops that are to be sent into Italy.'

'They write from Landau, that on the 24th of last Month, M. de Rupeldomonde, who march'd from thence on Wednesday in the Evening, with a Detachment of 850 Men of that Garrison, in order to carry off a Magazine of the Enemy's which they had at Eringen, on the other Side of the Rhine, was return'd thither on the 23d, with 1153 Sacks of Corn, 1000 Quin-als of Meal, and all his Detachment. He has also carried off the Queen of Hungary's Commissary. This Enterprize was conducted with all the Success we could wish, as he did not meet with the least Opposition.'

'The Comptroller-General of the Finances has actually paid the Count de Maurepas Ten Millions, for the extraordinary Expences of the Marine for this Year.' Actions 2180.

A Comparison between the present State-Lottery, as the Price the Tickets are now sold for, and that of the Year 1731, the Day the Lottery commenced drawing.

IN the Year 1731, in an Average, the Blanks and Prizes, before the Drawing was finished, sold for 7 per Cent. Discount, whereas the present sell at near Par; which makes this Lottery intrinsically worth 40,000 l. more than the former; and, secondly, the Prizes in the Lottery 1731, amounted to no more than 260,000 l. and so divided as to make nine Blanks to a Prize, whereas the Prizes in the present Lottery amount to 305,730 l. and consequently the Odds not near so disadvantageous.

Concerning Gleet and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons

allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleet and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectic Fevers, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleet, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabeta, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experience'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleet or Seminal Weakness of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleet and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Effect, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. RADCLIFFE's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note. Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of BALSAMICK ELECTUARY.
